

2022 Inland Empire Youth Grantmakers Grant Guidelines and Instructions Deadline: March 9, 2022

Mission of the Inland Empire Community Foundation

The Inland Empire Community Foundation's mission is "Where giving grows."

The Foundation does this by raising, stewarding and distributing charitable assets by providing grants to nonprofit organizations, and working toward a shared vision of a vibrant, generous and just region — with unlimited opportunities. The Foundation focuses on building its endowment to ensure that The Inland Empire Community Foundation is where giving grows.

The Inland Empire Community Foundation maintains the rigorous national standards for excellence for community foundations and is a member of the National Council on Foundations and the League of California Community Foundations.

Background: Youth Philanthropy

The Inland Empire Community Foundation established the Youth Grantmakers Program in 2008 to encourage philanthropy among youth. Youth Grantmakers address issues important to them by being rigorously trained in grantmaking. Students ages 15 to 18 apply to the Youth Grantmakers through their high school administrative or counseling offices. Through a rigorous 10-month, hands-on curriculum YG students build leadership skills, participate in community service activities, conduct a needs assessment of issues relevant to youth, make site visits to nonprofit organizations, review and analyze grant proposals, and make grant recommendations based on local needs.

The Youth Grantmakers Fund

The Youth Grantmakers Fund provides financial support for projects, programs and/or activities that serve youth in such areas as Health and Human Services, Arts and Culture, and Education.

Eligibility

- Nonprofit, public benefit corporations with evidence of tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and not classified as a private foundation. Educational institutions are eligible to apply.
- Nonprofit agencies that serve youth residing in Riverside, San Bernardino, Coachella Valley.
- Agencies that operate so that they do not discriminate in the hiring of staff or in providing services on the basis of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, national origin or disability.
- Agencies that have received Youth Grantmaker funds consecutively for the past two years (2018 and 2019) are not eligible to apply.

Grantmaking Objectives

- Involve youth in the development and implementation of the project, program and/or activity
 - Increase community involvement and volunteerism among youth
 - Promote values of personal responsibility in youth
 - Provide an avenue for internal exploration and personal empowerment of youth
 - Respect and promote diversity
 - Support intervention and prevention of social problems
 - Support and encourage youth creativity
 - Develop civic and public pride in youth

Program Interest Areas

Grant proposals will be accepted that address issues important to youth. Program interest areas are broad based and may include areas of academic preparation, cultural inclusion, awareness and prevention, as well as indirect and direct services that will help youth develop positive assets for strong social, mental and academic growth. Areas of specific interest to Youth Grantmakers as identified through a needs assessment include: Mental Health and Suicide; Academic Stress; Sexual Abuse; Eating Disorder/Body Image; Substance Abuse

Funding Priorities

The Youth Grantmakers Fund is a responsive grant making opportunity designed to empower the Youth Grantmaker members to review, score and recommend grant proposals that provide meaningful impact in the community. Submission of proposal that include activities that involve youth to address community need through involvement in arts (dance, drama, creative arts, music writing etc.), advocacy programs, educational classes, mentoring /tutoring, outdoor experiences, “real-life” learning experiences, service learning and treatment services are encouraged.

Grant Award

Applicants may request amounts in the following range: $1,000 to $2,500. The maximum grant award is $2,500.

Grant Period

The grant period is up to one year. Projects, Programs and/or Activities may start as early as May 1, 2022 and must end no later than April 30, 2023.

Application Review

Grants are awarded on a competitive basis. Applications will be screened for eligibility and completeness by the Inland Empire Community Foundation (IECF) staff. The Youth Grantmakers will evaluate each application and will submit grant recommendations to the Inland Empire Community Foundation staff for final approval by the foundation’s Board of Directors.
