Local High School Students Give $38,000 to Nonprofits in Riverside & San Bernardino County

San Bernardino Students Award $10,000 to Nonprofits Serving Youth

Riverside, CA – Inland Empire Community Foundation which serves Riverside and San Bernardino Counties has area high school students fund grants for local nonprofits.

Weeks into the statewide shutdown, YG made the shift to a virtual format for all of its gatherings. Students met over Zoom to do everything from organizing site visits and community service projects to analyzing grants and presenting awards to organizations in virtual ceremonies. “I wasn’t sure how our committee activities would be impacted being fully online,” said Denisha Shackelford, IECF Youth Initiatives Manager. “The students, however, went above and beyond and surprised me constantly with their creativity.”

The YG program, which began in 2009, is dedicated to teaching the tradition of philanthropy and community involvement to youth in the Inland Empire. Over the course of nine months students learn to read and analyze a grant application, respectfully debate the most critical needs, and prioritize the many worthwhile requests.

With representatives from 29 high schools in both counties, 108 Youth Grantmakers make up the Riverside, San Bernardino, Coachella Valley, and Native programs. Since the inception of this program, Youth Grantmakers have awarded over $278,000 to deserving nonprofit agencies.

In 2020-2021, they awarded $38,000 in grants, of which $12,000 were “Charity of Choice” recipients. $26,000 was awarded to 15 nonprofits:
